A Legal Document.

The following from the Adams County Best Jobbing . Offices PRICES TO CORRESPOND Independent, sounds enough like the verit- in the West, and without any superior in Wisconsin able "Shanghai" to be the production of his own pen:

MR. EDITOR :- Having had occasion for some legal "forms," and copying the same from a book, made, contracted, got up, and printed expressly, on purpose, for the purpose aforesaid, I was foreibly struck, hit, and impressed with and by an iden; an old, ancient one, too, since the idea aforesaid has OHEMICALS, hit me in the same or singular manuer be fore, when I have been reading, scanning, or perusing other legal documents, instru-PARLOR AND KITCHEN LAMPS, ments, or papers, like deeds of conveyance, mortgages, &c.

Now, as you have a, or the reputation of Toilet and Fancy Articles, being, or the vanity of thinking that you are, or have been, or may be, something of a lawyer, "as it were," perhaps, or it is to be found in market. Together with a full and varied stock of barely possible, you may give, or cause to be given or furnished, some information on the subject, "as it were;" that is, as to whether it is actually, truly, really, or unavoidably necessary to use so many words, phrases, and terms to give utterance to the simplest idea.

It has seemed, appeared and looked to a plain, common man, "as it were" quite, entirely, and absolutely unnecessary to mention one's heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, and all the rest of mankind more than a dozen times, even in so grave a transaction as the mortgaging an old horse, mare or mule to Jas. Crow, Esq., party of the second part. But then law is law, and orms is forms, which must be observed though a plain, common man, "as it were, cannot understand, comprehend, or know

Taking this view of the subject, I suppose it must be conceded, admitted, and acknowledged that if a neighbor, friend, or friends is or are asked, implored or begged to send, transfer, or loan his, her, or their dorg, or dorgs, for the sole use of scaring, driving, or chasing a calf or calves, cow or cows, steers, ox or oxen, from or out of a neighbor's, friend's, or relative's garden cornfield or patch, meadow or wheat field, containing 291 acres be the same more or less, (generally less,) then and in that case, as made and provided, said person or persons, parties of the first part, should make or cause to be made, and by these (or some) presents, (to the dorg or dorgs) that they, the said dorg or dorgs may understand and comprehend "as it were," and obey said parties of the first part, and that the said parties of the first part have full power and authority over the said dorg or dorgs, to allow, cause, or induce them, the said dorg or dorgs to "Sti-boy," " sick " or " bite 'em," and furthermore, to catch, seize, lay, or gir hold of the tail or tails of the said calf or calves, steer or steers, cow or cows, ox or oxen, with one or more of their teeth, or mouths, and excise, cut, or slap off, an inch, an inch an a half or two inches of their tails, be the same more or less, generally more, not less, as in the case of the 29% acres aforesaid.

much about so grand and sublime a science.

Yours, for reforms generally His Quarrel with Tom Marshal.—The following capital story, told of Cassias M. Clay, of Kentucky, we believe has never before been in print. It will be remember ed that Mr. Clay served as captain of a company of Kentuckians in Mexico until. taken prisoner by the enemy, he was compelled to remain an inactive spectator of seenes in which he would gladly have been an actor. Thomas F. Marshall, the fluent orator and inimitable imbiber, was also a captain in the same regiment with Clay. Marshall was in the habit of coming drunk on parade, much to the disgust of all, and greatly to the disorder and breach of all discipline in the regiment. Captain Clay, though the strictest of all captains in obey ing the army rules and in requiring obe dience, determined to give Capt. Marshall command was second only to that of the colonel, he put on his military parapherna said: "I command you to empty the guard house of all the prisoners; so long as I have command in this regiment no soldier shall be punished whilst captains are allowed to violate the rules of war with inpunity." The guard house was emptied; and a great expectation was excited to see the issue of this fiagrant breach of duty, but no notice was taken by the colonel of the affair.

At the next encampment the fumous quarrel took place between Captains Clay and Marshall, in presence of the whole repiment. Clay proposed to fight Marshall on the spot with broadswords; but Marshall pleaded that it would embroil the regiment. Thereupon Clay most bitterly replied that "Marshall, at Lexington, did not fear to embroil, by his inflammatory appeals, the people in an affray where women and children were endangered; but here, where the two met on equal terms, where men wote swords, with war as their profession, he feared to embroil others! It was the plea

A Legal Document.

The following from the Adams County | Best Jobbing Offices Independent, sounds enough like the verit- in the West, and without any superior in Wisconsis able "Shanghai" to be the production of Withour his own pen :

Mr. Editor :-- Having had occasion for we are enabled to execute any order for work with a some legal "forms," and copying the same from a book, made, contracted, got up, and printed expressly, on purpose, for the purpose aforesaid, I was forcibly struck, bit, and impressed with and by an idea; an old, ancient one, too, since the idea aforesaid has hit me in the same or singular manner be fore, when I have been reading, scanning, or perusing other legal documents, instruments, or papers, like deeds of conveyance, mortgages, &c.

Now, as you have a, or the reputation of being, or the vanity of thinking that you are, or have been, or may be, something of a lawyer, "as it were," perhaps, or it is hardly possible a programmer. a lawyer, "as it were," pernaps, or it is barely possible, you may give, or cause to be given or furnished, some information on the subject, "as it were;" that is, as to whether it is actually, truly, really, or unavoidably necessary to use so many words, phrases, and terms to give utterance to the implest idea.

It has seemed, appeared and looked to a plain, common man, "as it were" quite, entirely, and absolutely unnecessary to mention one's heirs, executors, administrators, assigns, and all the rest of mankind more than a dozen times, even in so grave a transaction as the mortgaging an old horse, mare or mule to Jas. Crow, Esq., party of the second part. But then law is law, and forms is forms, which must be observed. though a plain, common man, "as it were, cannot understand, comprehend, or know much about so grand and sublime a science.

AN ANECDOTE OF CASSIUS M. CLAY-HIS QUARREL WITH TOM MARSHAL.—The following capital story, told of Cassius M. Ciny, of Kentucky, we believe has nover before been in print. It will be remember ed that Mr. Clay served as captain of a company of Kentuckians in Mexico until. taken prisoner by the enemy, he was com-pelled to remain an inactive spectator of scenes in which he would gladly have been an actor. Thomas F. Marshall, the fluon: orator and inimitable imbiber, was also a captain in the same regiment with Clay. Marshall was in the habit of coming drunk on parade, much to the disgust of all, and greatly to the disorder and breach of all discipline in the regiment. Captain Clay, liscipline in the regiment. Captain Clay. though the strictest of all captains in obey ing the army rules and in requiring obedience, determined to give Capt. Marshai a hint of his disapprovel. So, as soon as he became "officer of the day," when his command was second only to that of the colonel, he put on his military parapherna lia, and, riding up to the guard house, cried out in a loud voice: "Officer of the guard!" and the guard officer appeared he "I command you to empty the guard house of all the prisoners; so lour as I have command in this regiment no sul dier shall be punished whilst captains are allowed to violate the rules of war with inpunity." The guard house was emptied ; and a great expectation was excited to see the issue of this flagrant breach of duly. but no notice was taken by the colonel of

At the next encampment the famous quarrel took place between Captains Clarand Marshall, in presence of the whole reiment. Clay proposed to fight Marshall on the spot with broadswords; but Marshall pleaded that it would embroil the regiment Thereupon Clay most bitterly replied that "Marshall, at Lexington, did not fear to embroil, by his inflammatory appeals, the people in an affray where women and children were endangered; but here, where the two met on equal terms, where man were swords, with war as their profession, he feared to embroil others! It was the plea of a poltroon and assassin." The next day Marshall tried to drown bimself and himselfiable tried to drown bimself and himself and him mortification in Juan river. Such we Clay's revenge upon the leader of the med

REBEL GURNENCY.—The old table of school days, "ten mills make one cent, ten cents one dime, ten dimes one dollar, i-"played out." A dime or a dollar, in hard spelter, is a sight good for diseased optics, and a five minute's survey of ten dollars in specie would cure the most hopeless care of Asiatic cholera. But we have a new ta ble of currency, and it is published here free of charge, for the benefit of those who choose to cut it out and post it up for ref erence:

We have made the above Reduction in Prices with the two feld view of benediting facquable and ourselves. The public have been swindled by spurious machines made in unitation of ours. The motal in them, from the iron easting to the smallest piece, isof poor quality. Their maters have not the means to dothnir work well. They are hid away in secret piaces, where it would be unpossible to have at their command the proper mechanical appliances. It is only by doing a great business, and having extensive manufacturing establishments, that good machines can be made at moderate prices. The best designed machines, laddy Made, are always had be to get out of order, and are sure to cost considerable trouble and money to keep them in repair. The qualities to be looked for in a machine are: certainly of correct action at all rates of speed, simplicity of convention, great data-shilly and ramidity of operation, with the least bear. Machines to combine these essential qualities must be made of the best metal and finished to perfection. We have the ways and means, on a grand scale, to do this. grand scale, to do this.

The purchasers of machines, whose daily bread it may concern, will find that those having the slice qualities not only work will at rapid as well as sine rates of speed but has hope in the finest possible working order. Retrenchment in Congress.

The people are expecting from Congress and state legislatures a retrenchment in exof the war, and the closeness of the times, domands and honest effort in this direction. gregate, $149,987 per annum. His bill re. | plus to sell. duces it to $89,580-making a total saving of $60,407.

This is a good beginning; but it is only a commencement in the reforms that might be introduced in Washington. The lavish appropriations made for the care of the capitol and its grounds; the purchase of furniture, paintings, ornaments and gew-gaws; the lighting of the capital, the cost of fuel, and the continued leak under the heads of improvements, repairs and additions to [the ] building, absorb fabulous aums of money. A committee on retrenchment should take hold of the whole subject, and apply the pruning knife, not only to the employees in and around the capitol building, but in every branch of the public service.

Members of congress should not spare themselves. They ought now to reform the vicious system of mileage, which alone costs $242,027 for each session. Constructive mileage should be prohibited entirely, and a fair amount allowed to each member, sufficient to cover his actual expenses in going to and from Washington. If this subject is not attended to now the people will take the matter in hand, and elect a congress to carry out their wishes.

Gen. Lane's Expedition.

Wonders will never cease in this war .--so called expedition of Gen. Lane. It has from Washington, for weeks, that Lane was to have command of an expedition to Texas and the gulf; that he had the permission of the president to undertake it; that his staff had been appointed; and lastly, that in taking leave of the president a remarkable conversation occurred, all about the expedition and the manner in which it was to be conducted, in which the president not only approved of Lane's policy, but even went further in the radical treatment of the contraband question than Lane him-

At the late exhibition in Florence, a no tico was posted for sidding any one to smoke. The King of Italy happening to enter with a cigar in his mouth, a faithful police officer stopped him, exclaiming, "Sire, you cannot smoke here." "Ah!" replied the king, reading the notice, "you are right;" and he threw his cigar on the floor, whence served as a trophy,

The Reciprocity Treaty.

While congress is searching for objects of taxation among the people to support the expenses of the war, and while it is expected that every necessary and every luxury used will bear its proportionate burden, it is proposed to have free and untaxed trade in one direction only, and that is with the British Possessions of North America, by the continuance of the Reciprocity Treaty. If we tax the importations of commodities from all the nations of the earth, why should we except Canada in any particular? It may be that certuin centres of trade would be benefitted by the exemption but we doubt very much whether the whole people would receive their proper share of these benefits. Chicago might, for a few years, sell grain and pork largely to the Canadians, but this state of things cannot continue long .-Through the favoriteism shown the Canadians, by this treaty, they are fast clearing their lands, putting them into cultivation, and preparing to compete with the west in agricultural productions, and especially in wheat, pork, &c. This they will do by the wealth obtained by the unrestricted use of American markets, which we are asked to continue to them. Canada has been west, while it was in process of settlement, bought more than it sold of agricultural

By the reciprocity treaty we have for ten years past encouraged the settlement and the development of Canadian resources; and we have thus, in a measure, thro' the prosperity we have given them, induced emigrants to stop there, instead of passing by them to locate in the west, as was formerly the case. If we continue to them the advantage of this treaty, and make them recipients of our bounty for another period of ten years, do we not permit them to share in all the benefits of our enterprise and favorable location without adequate reciprocal benefits?

If the trade which flows by this means into Canada were restricted to our own side of the boundary line, it would pay a portion of the war tax, while under the reciprocity treaty it would not. Let us be just to ourselves, and legislate for the protection of the interests of our own citizens. All nations are acting upon the selfish principle. We have had a lesson on this subject, lately, from England, which the Canadian Provinces have not been slow to applaud and sustain. We owe them no friendship, but should deal with them upon the principle of giving no favor and asking none. Doubtless they are willing to receive benefits from us, but we question whether any arrangement can be made The latest feature of singularity is in the | with England or her dependencies which will be reciprocal and fair. Such a treaty been announced by dispatches and letters with England, we are quite sure, never was made by any nation.

Newspapers in the Legislature.

The innocents who suppose that the newspapers furnished the legislature by the state are designed to post the members on the local affairs of the state and thus aid the business of legislation, and are then distributed among their constituents for their enlightenment, may receive a new idea on the first proposition by examining the following list of papers which made out the quota of a western member a year since, (we think,) and may get some light on the latter by reading a resolution adopt ing all the papers scattered about the senate and assembly chambers and send them to Camp Randall. The list we copied in the Secretary of State's office, after the auditing of the account, and has just been brought to our recollection by discovering it snugly stowed away among other papers.

Here is the list: Chicago Daily Tribune, Harpers' Weekly, Frank Leslie's Illustrated Weekly, Scientific American, Budget of Fun, Leslie's Family Magazine, Vanity Fair, Comic Monthly, Yanken Notions, Little's Living Age, Welcome Guest, Edinburg Review. Nix Nax, Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, True Flag, Congressional Globe, Harpers' Magazine, Arthur's Home Magazine, Higher Law, Manitowoo Tribune, Wisconsin Atlas, Weekly Milwaukee Sentinel, Weekly Milwaukee News, I copy of the daily Madison Journal and the Madison Patriot.

All these magazines and papers, except the Wisconsin papers, were taken from the Madison bookstores.

In the list of other members, we noticed the New York Daily Tribune, Daily New York Herald, Louisville Journal. Charleston Courier, (semi-weekly,) Peterson's Magazine, Gleason's Pictorial, Godey's Ladies' Book, Willis' Home Journal, Boston Pilot, New York Ledger, Rural New Yorker, Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, &c.

One of the subordinate clerks liberally supplied himself from the same bookstores with the Chicago Daily Tribune, New York Illustrated News, Little's Living Age, New York Independent, Scientific American, and Vanity Fair. Our impression in relation to this matter is, that members were then restricted to six dailies or twenty weekly papers, and the list of the member referred to footed up $20, the limit now assigned by the law which the present legislature so adroitly managed to retain in full force by a disagreement over its amendment or repeal. The simple cost of the papers ordered is not the only evil and abuse connected with it, though that is an expense which ought to be cut off. The papers are a pretext for Together they constitute an item large as the county tax of many of the counties of the state. We presume, however, it is all right; the people pay the money, and the poor, overtasked, self-denying members of the legislature receive the benefit.

The Flood in California,

The following letter will be read with interest, by the numerous friends of the writer, in this city and vicinity: SACRAMENTO, Dec. 11, 1861.

DEAR FRIENDS AT HOME:-You will learn, by the paper I have sent you, that we have been visited by the most devastating flood that has yet fallen upon our "city of the plains." Imagine what a scene of confusion must have ensued, when a city of 15,000 inhabitants, surrounded on all'sides by a levee, like the banks of the Mississippi, should, in a few hours, be flooded, to the depth, in some places, of twenty feet. The flood came from the "American" about two miles from its confluence with the "Sacramento." This river rises very rapidly, and is caused by the melting of the snow upon the mountains, by long, heavy rains. In this case, true to its old habits, it rose anddenly, twenty-two feet eight inches-and, breaking through the levee, came pouring down on our devoted city, bearing on its heaving bosom, horses, dogs, cattle and small houses. Then arose a scene of unparalled confusion, disorder and dismay. The sullen roar of the turbid waters was broken by the cries of men, the shricks of women for help, and the crash of falling buildings. Men were seen, standing up to even floating portions of their houses, shouting for help-willing to pay any amount to the boatmen that slowly urged their way against the current, to their assistance. One man offered one hundred dollars in gold, to a boatman, to carry himself, wife and child, one block, to a twostory brick house, but he would not take him as he had to save his own family.-Another man, who lived in a house six feet from the ground, invited his neighbors to bring their goods to him for safety, as he was sure the water could not, possibly, reach the floor; but it continued to rise until it was waist deep on the floor, when he secured a boat, put them all aboard, and just as he stepped into the boat, away went the house !-the last one left upon the block. The water commenced to break over the levee at eight o'clock, and by noon, had

All the boats were taken from the steamers on the river. and the carpenters were manufacturing boats by the hundreds-even sections of sidewalks, and street crossings were employed, and every kind of floating craft was in requisition. To these facts, and also, that every one who could secure a horse, started for the lower part of town, and removed all they could, may be attributed the small loss of life. It is really wonderful that in a day, back of Little Tybee, and passed up ments were taking similar steps in this con city of 15,000 souls, so totally and suddenly to the north end of Wilmington Island, try-nection. overwhelmed, only some half dozen were ing to cut off communication between Fort known to have been lost. NEAR ROLLA, Jan. 25, 1862. No news of importance here. The troops have pretty much left for the southwest.— Those in camp, from indications, will soon follow. We are waiting patiently for the return of Gen. Sigel from your city. think on his arrival here there will be change of programme. He is the man we love to fight "mit." There is a great deal their necks in water, while supporting their of suffering here, among the poor southern wives and little ones on chair, tables, and, refugees, notwithstanding the officer's and men's assistance. The most of them have rude huts made of canvas, sticks and mud. They are in a most deplorable condition.— I learn that four members of a family died a few days since, and the father of the deceased did not have a cent of money to purchase coffins or shrouds. The men of the 35th Illinois regiment being near at band, and learning of the sad mortality, immediately repaired to the hut of mourn ing, and provided coffins, &c., for the interment of the dead. So long as the weather continues favorable, they (the poorrefugees) will be able to get along tolerably well, but they have suffered severely during the cold spell we have had here. Why don't Gen. Halleck do something for them?

Retrenchment in Congress.

The people are expecting from Congress and state legislatures a retrenchment in expenditures at this time. The enormous cost of the war, and the elemeness of the times, demands and honest effort in this direction. Mr. Sherman, of Ohio, has introduced a bill in the senate to reduce the salaries of the this respect very rapidly, like many other employees of both houses of congress .--They have been heretofore paid, in the aggregate, $149,987 per annum. His bill reduces it to $89,580-making a total saving of $60,407.

This is a good beginning; but it is only a commencement in the reforms that might be introduced in Washington. The lavish appropriations made for the care of the capitol and its grounds; the purchase of furniture, paintings, ornaments and gew-gaws; the lighting of the capitol, the cost of fuel, and the continued leak under the heads of improvements, repairs and additions to !the building, absorb fabulous sums of money. A committee on retrenchment should take hold of the whole subject, and apply the pruning kuife, not only to the employees in and around the capitol building, but in every branch of the public service.

Members of congress should not spare themselves. They ought now to reform the vicious system of mileage, which alone costs $242,027 for each session. Constructive mileage should be prohibited entirely, and a fair amount allowed to each member, sufficient to cover his actual expenses in going to and from Washington. If this subject is not attended to now the people will take the matter in hand, and elect a friendship, but should deal with them upon congress to carry out their wishes.

Gen. Lane's Expedition.

Wonders will never cease in this war .-The latest feature of singularity is in the from Washington, for weeks, that Lane was to have command of an expedition to Texas and the gulf; that he had the permission of the president to undertake it; that his staff had been appointed; and lastly, that in taking leave of the president a remarkable conversation occurred, all about the expedition and the manner in which it was to be conducted, in which the president not only approved of Lane's policy, but even went further in the radical treatment of the contraband question than Lanc him-

The Washington dispatch still further mixes up the matter, and makes the whole subject a perfect muddle, by informing us that Gen. Hunter will take command at Poolsville, Md., in place of Gen. Stone, who wishes to retire. That is the way the matter stands at present.

What next? Are the people to be hum bugged in this way, continually, by the telegraph under government censorship?-Gen. Hunter may be a good officer, but under his leadership there would be no enthu. Ladies' Book, Willis' Home Journal, Bossiasm in the west. Has Gen. Lane been fooling us, or the government?

WE STAND CORRECTED,-The Madison Patriot bints to us that we 'ought to bave acknowledged the source from which we obtained our information as to the expenditure of $6,294.87 for labor and watchmen about the state capitol. We now state that we were indebted to the Patriot, and if that paper will delve into some other accounts or reports presented to the legislature, and bring out the items of some other expenditures, we will "credit" without waiting to be reminded of our omission.

THE REBEL GENERAL CRITTENDEN .- It is said that Hon. John J. Crittenden is deeply affected by the news from Kentucky, and has not been in the house since the report of the battle of Somerset was received. Although he has two sons in the Union army, the presence of one in the rebel army (his o'dest) overwhelms him with grief.

At the late exhibition in Florence, a notice was posted for sidding any one to smoke. The King of Italy happening to enter with a cigar in his mouth, a faithful police officer stopped him, exclaiming, "Sire, you cannot smoke here." "Ab!" replied the king, reading the notice, "you are right;" and he threw his cigar on the floor, whence it was picked up by the policeman and preserved as a trothy.

The Reciprocity Treaty.

While congress is searching for objects f taxation among the people to support the expenses of the war, and while it is ter, in this city and vicinity: expected that every necessary and every luxury used will bear its proportionate burden, it is proposed to have free and untaxed trade in one direction only, and that is with the British Possessions of North America, by the continuance of the Recip. of the plains." Imagine what a scene of rocity Treaty. If we tax the importation must have ensued, when a city of tions of commodities from all the nations of the earth, why should we except Canada in any particular? It may be that certain centres of trade would be benefitted by the exemption but we doubt very much whether the whole people would receive their proper share of these benefits. Chistate of things cannot continue long .agricultural productions, and especially in wheat, pork, &c. This they will do by the wealth obtained by the unrestricted use of American markets, which we are asked to continue to them. Canada has been west, while it was in process of settlement, bought more than it sold of agricultural and other products, but it is changing in parts of our own country, and instead of plus to sell.

By the reciprocity treaty we have for ten years past encouraged the settlement and the development of Canadian resources; and we have thus, in a measure, thro' the prosperity we have given them, induced emigrants to stop there, instead of passing by them to locate in the west, as was formerly the case. If we continue to them the advantage of this treaty, and make them recipients of our bounty for another period of ten years, do we not permit them to share in all the benefits of our enterprise and favorable location without adequate reeiprocal benefits?

If the trade which flows by this means into Canada were restricted to our own side of the boundary line, it would pay a portion of the war tax, while under the reciprocity treaty it would not. Let us be just to ourselves, and legislate for the protection of the interests of our own citizens. All nations are acting upon the selfish principle. We have had a lesson on this subject, lately, from England, which the Canadian Provinces have not been slow to anplaud and sustain. We owe them no the principle of giving no favor and asking none. Doubtless they are willing to receive benefits from us, but we question whether any arrangement can be made with England or her dependencies which so called expedition of Gen. Lane. It has will be reciprocal and fair. Such a treaty been announced by dispatches and letters with England, we are quite sure, never was made by any nation.

Newspapers in the Legislature. The innocents who suppose that the newspapers furnished the legislature by the state are designed to post the members or the local affairs of the state and thus aid the business of legislation, and are then distributed among their constituents for their enlightenment, may receive a new idea on the first proposition by examining the following list of papers which made out the quota of a western member a year since, (we think,) and may get some light an oration, made a speech (not a procla on the latter by reading a resolution adopt mation) of what he was going to do with | ed by the present legislature which directs his army of 34,000 whites and 34,000 blacks, the sergeant-at-arms to collect each morn and announced that the administration had | ing all the papers scattered about the sen-"opened a new set of books," &c. > All these magazines and papers, except the Wisconsin papers, were taken from the Madison bookstores.

Yorker, Wilkes' Spirit of the Times, &c. One of the subordinate clerks liberally supplied himself from the same bookstores with the Chicago Daily Tribune, New York Illustrated News, Little's Living Age, New York Independent, Scientific American, and Vanity Fair.

Our impression in relation to this matter s, that members were then restricted to six dailies or twenty weekly papers, and the list of the member referred to footed up $20, the limit now assigned by the law which the present legislature so advoitly managed to retain in full force by a disagreement over its amendment or repeal.

The simple cost of the papers ordered is not the only evil and abuse connected with t, though that is an expense which ought to be cut off. The papers are a pretext for frequent appropriations of postage stamps. Together they constitute an item large as the county tax of many of the counties of the state. We presume, however, it is all right; the people pay the money, and the poor, overtasked, self-denying members of he legislature receive the benefit.

It is said that it will be the aim of Min ister Cameron to urge upon Russia an alli-ance offensive and defensive with this country.

SACRAMENTO, Dec. 11, 1861. DEAR FRIENDS AT HOME:-You will learn, by the paper I have sent you, that we have been visited by the most devastating flood that has yet fallen upon our "city 15,000 inhabitants, surrounded on all sides by a levee, like the banks of the Mississippi, should, in a few hours, be flooded, to the depth, in some places, of twenty feet. The flood came from the "American" about two miles from its confluence with the "Sacramento." This river rises very rapidly, and cago might, for a few years, sell grain and is caused by the melting of the snow opon pork largely to the Canadians, but this the mountains, by long, heavy rains. Then arose a scene of unparalled confusion, disorder and dismay. The sullen roar of the turbid waters was broken by the cries of men, the shricks of women for help, and the crash of falling comparatively a new country, and like the buildings. Men were seen, standing up to their necks in water, while supporting their wives and little ones on chair, tables, and, even floating portions of their houses, shouting for help-willing to pay any amount to the boatmen that slowly urged buying of us has, or will soon have, a sur- their way against the current, to their assistance. One man offered one hundred dollars in gold, to a boatman, to carry himself, wife and child, one block, to a twostory brick house, but he would not take him as he had to save his own family .-Another man, who lived in a house six feet from the ground, invited his neighbors to bring their goods to him for safety, as be was sure the water could not, possibly, reach the floor; but it continued to rise until it was waist deep on the floor, when he secured a boat, put them all aboard, and uet as he stepped into the boat, away went the house!-the last one left upon the block. The water commenced to break over the levee at eight o'clock, and by noon, had reached the highest point. Every portion of the city was submerged. I and K streets being the principal business streets, and highest in the city, were two or three feet under water, and the only land visible, was that which formed the levees. The water was covered with floating houses, furniture, lumber and debris. All the boats were taken from the steamers on the river, and the carpenters were manufacturing boats by the hundreds-even sections of sidewalks, and street crossings were employed, and every kind of floating craft was in requisition. To these facts, and also, that every one who could secure a horse, started for the lower part of town, and removed all they could, may be attributed the small loss of life. It is really wonderful that in a city of 15,000 souls, so totally and suddenly overwhelmed, only some half dozen were known to have been lost. The loss of property is estimated at $1,500,000, which is, I think, not far out of the way-as every property holder lost more or less. Merchants of every description, having their cellars filled with merchandise, which they cannot remove until the water falls in the rivers, and the cellars pumped out, are great loses, as are also, the produce and commission merchants with their stores filled with grain, and the owners of buildings that were washing away-but the loss falls most heavily upon the poor families, who, having secured their winter supplies have ost all. The Howard Benevolent Society and four boats employed all day Monday in by fire. carrying these destitute families to the agricultural pavilion, where they are supplied with food, clothing, and bedding-they have low some three or four hundred under their cure. The "chaingangs" were early set to work to break through the R street levee and let the water off; when it was effected, the scene was said to have been very grandthe crumbling of the banks before the resistless torrent-the rush and roar of the mighty waters, as they moved through the narrow pass, drawing large buildings within their grasp and crushing them as one would an egg shell. In this manner, forty buildings passed through in a short time. In the evening I went out on the balcony of my hotel to view the scene—above, all was bright and beautiful-not a cloud obscured the sky-the air was soft and mild, and the moon and stars shone with a brilliancy rarely seen in Wisconsin. But, below all was desolation. The turbid waters moved to and fro, as if seeking some new object of destruction. Amidst the scenes of sadness which pained the eye, some amusing incidents transpired. You must know the people of this city never despair; and when they found their lives were safe, they were disposed to make the most of it. A friend, while floating down on a section of sidewalk, saw a man up to his waist in picked up on the beach, killed by our men water, trying to pick his way along the sidewalk, while every little way, a plank was missing, and he would stumble and disappear, soon to come up again spluttering and blowing. After this process had been several times repeated, some one called out to him, "Well friend, how are you getting along?" To which he replied, "Oh, finely -finely-but I think no man has a right to live in this city that can't swim." An old washerwoman was seen standing on the before her, washing away with all the sang froid imaginable. Her little boy was sitting down, with his feet dangling in, and spattering the water, --- when the boatman requested the poor woman to enter his boat, and be conveyed to a place of safety, she replied "Oh no-I don't think 'tis much of a flood after all!" And yet, the water was up to the eaves of her little house.

property, enjoyed the fun with the rest. The business of the city is at a stand, and the remainder of the week is devoted to washing down, and cleaning up, as there was half an inch of mud on everything. Our store had only six inches of water on the floor, while some of the others near us, had three feet. The house where I board, had five feet water in the dining room. My room was in another building, up so that I lost nothing. At present, the whole country, as far as the eye can reach, is one wide waste of water-and, I perceive my letter is filled with the flood. #### AFTERNOON DESPATCHES. New York, Jan. 31. The Africa from Liverpool 18th, Queenstown 19th, arrived here this forenoon, with two days' later advices. GREAT BRITAIN .- The commissioners of the customs had received orders to permit the free expertation of all articles against which prohibitions were recently issued. It was reported that Lord Russell, in response to a memorial from a ship owner's association, in reference to the stone blockade of Charleston, said he sent a dispatch warning the government at Washington against the ill feeling that such proceed ings would engender; also that it would lead to the opinion that a reconstruction of the Union was considered hopeless. After the design was carried out, he sent another dispatch expressing strong hopes that the sinking of vessels filled with stone would not be repeated elsewhere. It was rumored that the French and other governments were taking similar steps in this connection.

The London Morning Post regrets at the general condemnation of the act of sinking these stone vessels, and says that it is rousing European governments to a common sentiment, and asks why more forbearance should be shown America than was the case when Belgium was recognized, particularly as Holland was never guilty of the barbarities committed by the cabinet of the United States. into New York with the British flag flying other note condemning an American commander for extracting an oath from British seamen, for a breach of the blockade, that they would not undertake similar proceed ings again, relieving the seamen from the obligation of the oath.

The London Observer suggests the expediency of an intervention by France and England between the federal and confederate state of North America. Such an act would be approved by the whole world. The intervention would be gladly accepted by the confederate states, and would give satisfaction to any man of the northern states who has anything to lose. Our government and that of France will be called upon therefore to repeat what was done in the case of Greece and Turkey. No one can doubt our power or the beneficial effect of such an intervention.

Congressional.

Washington, Jan. 29. SENATE .- Mr. Foster offered a resolution hat the secretary of the treasury inform the senate what, if any, further legislation s necessary to enable the executive depart ment to take charge of the cotion and other lands of South Carolina now in possession of the government, and to place the same under cultivation; also, if any further leg islation is necessary to provide for the blacks of these localities, and furnish them proper employment. Adopted.

Mr. Summer introduced a bill authorizing the President to appoint three persons skilled in law to revise, simplyfy, and consolidate United States statutes, gen eral and permanent in their nature, with to each title and subdivision, giving the substance in side notes guiding to the text, and referring to original acts and decisions under them. The commission to report to congress, which shall correct contradictions and re-enact. The bill was reterred.

On motion of Mr. Wade, the bill to authorize the President to take possession of certain railroads and telegraph lines was taken up. Mr. Wade said the bill was intended only as a war measure, and to effect such roads as were not willing to be used by the government.

Mr. Wilson, of Mo., presented the credentials of J. B. Anderson. The joint resolution on secret session was taken up, and, after some umendments, Mr. Bright's case was resumed. No ac-

After excutive session adjourned.

House.—Representative Ely took his seat to day for the first time since his reease from Richmond. Mr. Ward from the committee on comnerce, made a report upon petitions prayng for the abrogation of the Canadian re-iprocity treaty. So far from advising its brogation, the committee urges that the commercial union with Canada should be more, not less, intimate. The committee, n the course of a very long document, discuss the resources, and present the condition, of the British provinces, the state of ur present relations with them, and the line of policy most conducive to the weltare of both countries. The house then went into committee of the whole on the state of the Union, and resumed the consideration of the executive, ndicial, aed legislative appropriation bill.

This was subsequently laid aside, and the special order proceeded with, namely; the bill to authorise the issue of United States notes, and for the redemption or funding thereof, and for the funding of the loating debt, which was published last Mr. Morrill gave notice of his intention to introduce a substitute for the bill, omitting such parts as make the notes a legal Mr. Spaulding proceeded to explain the bill, saying that the secretary of the treas-ury had acted in strict conformity with the aw, and borrowed money at the rates authorized by the act of congress. He has borrowed a hundred million at 7 3-10 per cent., and issued sufficient bonds for tifty millions, for which he has received not quite forty-five millions. The secretary has acted in good faith, and should be sustained. We were never in greater peril than now, and our best energies are required to meet the crisis. This was a war measure, one of necessity, and not of hoice. The public debt on the 15th of January was $360,764,000. The house passed the legislative, execulive and judicial appropriation billamong the provisions are the following, amely: "That nothing in this act shall prevent hereafter a reduction of salaties; and that mileage now due by law shall be paid as soon as certified by the presiding officer of each house; but there shall be no construction for mileage beyond what is allowed by law, namely: inileage for each regular session only." This bill makes appropriation merely for objects authorized by existing statutes.

Mr. Lovejoy, from the committee on agiculture, reported a bill appropriating $3, 000, to be expended under the direction of the secretary of the interior, for purchasing upland cotton seed for general distribution through the patent office. Passed.

The house passed the bill providing that More diplomatic correspondence had been published, including a letter from Mr. Seward to the secretary of the navy, condemning in strong terms the fact that the British schoouer, Jas. Campbell, was taken British schoouer, Jas. Campbell, was taken a whole and other field officers who shall have been commissioned as such, shall be entitled to receive the pay and allowances established for their regu under that of the United States; and an lar grades from the the time they were severally authorized, in writing, by the presi dent, secretary of war, or governor of their state, to raise such regiment; provided bowever, that in no case shall date back more than three months prior to such regiment being raised to the minimum

The provisions of the bill are also to apply to captains, excepting their pay shall xtend back only two months. The bill was passed giving the president authority to take possession of railroads, telegraphs, etc., by 113 ayes to 28 nays. The consideration of the treasury note bill was resumed. No action. The army bill was taken up.

Mr. Gurley made an attack on the inac tivity of leading generals. The joint resolution on secret sessions vas taken up and passed. Adjourned.

MARRIED. On Thursday, the 30th inst, at the residence of L. E. Stone, in this city, by the Rev. T. J. Ruger, FRANK L. STONE and ALICE HILL, both of Monroe.

JANESVILLE, Jan. 31st, 1862. EDITORS OF GAZETTE: - Captain Ely has done me great injustice in his letter published in your last issue, by stating that I am a deserter. The facts of my case are these: I was in the battle of Bull Run and was wounded. On the 30th of July I recoived a furlough for thirty days and a pass on which I came home, and was assured, in answer to my questions as to how I was to get back, that my furlough would return me to my regiment. On the 27th of August, I started to go back to join my company, got as far as Chicago and the railroad company would not pass me any further. I then reported at the office of Capt. Webb, U. S. Quartermaster in Chicago, and received from some person in his office an order on the railroad superintendent for a pass to Washington. This order was refused. I then came back to Janesville, reported my self to Capt. Stanton, then a U. S. recruiting officer hero, and was advised by him to telegraph to Gov. Randall, stating my case, and asking him to pass me to Washington. In roply I received this dispatch :-"Mantson, August 29th, 1861.

To John Donovan: - Have enquired of War Department. A. W. RANDALL." On 31st August I received from Gov. Randali this dispatch :-

"Secretary of War says no arrangement made. Men pay their own fare."

I was without money to pay my fare, and could not join my company. I think it very unjust to charge me with being a deserter when I made every effort in my power to raturn to the service. I have always been and still am ready and willing to go back whenever I can be furnished with a pass to enable me to do so. If any one doubts the truth of these statements I shall be happy to show them my furlough and the telegraphic dispatches from Gov. Randall, which I have in my possession.

JOHN DONOVAN.

[To some of the statements made by Mr. Donovau we can offer personal testimony. In a conversation with him after his return from Chicago, in which he stated his failure to get beyond Chicago, we advised him to report at once to Capt. Stanton, and saw him leave with one of our citizens for the office of that officer.; This fact had escaped our remembrance, or we would have accompanied account of themselves. Ely with the explanation of men to disabuse the southern mind upon which is due to Mr. Donovan. Mr. D. is a resident of this city, has been here all the time since leaving his company, except the time required for his journey from Washington, and his trip to Chicago and back, and has never attempted a concealment of bis residence. Even if a technical deserter, his offence has no shade of criminality or disgrace. Capt. Ely must have been ignorant of the circumstances attending his ab. sence from his company.

ISTO CAMP .- Capt. Geraughty's company left here yesterday for Col. Doran's regiment in camp at Camp Randall. He took with him 103 men, we are told, recruited mainly in this city, Beloit and Racine. 24 of them enlisted here. This company is a stalwart, hardy set of men, and will do good service.

ARRIVAL AT MILWAUKEE .- Capt. Parker's company has arrived in Milwaukee to join Col. Washburn's cavalry regiment. It con-- tains some of our best citizens, and will confer honor upon any corps in the service.

THE PENALTY OF CURIOSITY .- The Ohio Register says that a minister named Downing, visiting New York on business, had his pocket picked of seventy-nine dollars in n sailer dance house on Water street. He said in excuse for being there, that he had read in a La Crosso paper a description of such places which he did not believe could be true, and was auxious to convince himself. Guess he was convinced, and that hereafter he will trust a written description without a personal verification.

ON TIME,-We learn that on the 29th Mr. Holdredge, county treasurer of Rock county, paid the whole amount due on state tax to the state treasurer, amounting to $22,829.75. This is the first payment in full by any county, this year.

Honse Thier Caudur .- Yesterday, Under Sheriff Colley of Beloit escorted a young man by the name of Andrews from Woodstook, Ill., to our county jail. Audrews stole a span of horses in Oshkosh last fall, and was traced to Beloit. About two weeks since, Mr. Colley, with the nid of Deputy Sheriff Church, of McHenry county, Ill., caught the scamp near Woodstock, after quite an exciting chase through the fields. He has now a good safe hoarding place, where his friends can find him at all hours.

THURSDAY, Jan. 30. SENATE.—The resolutions expunging the state rights resolutions of 1859, were amended by substituting "disavowed and rescinded" for "expunged," and adding a preamble that they were in part the Kentucky resolutions of 1798, and had been incorporated into the platforms of democratic and national administrations, and then adopted -the democratic members voting against Assembly.—The Secretary of State reported that he had no more help than he needed, in his office, and that he would probably need more clerks.

Five dollars worth of additional postage stamps to each member was voted.

Mr. Thomas, of Crawford, introduced a bill for the relief of farm mortgagors. It provides for the appointment of three commissioners to whom the railroads are to pay at the rate of one cent for each bushel of wheat they earry and in that proportion for other freight to create a sinking fund with which to pay off the mortgages. The holders are to be paid in proportion to what they paid for the mortgages. The fund to be placed in the state treasury, and paid out on the order of the commissioners.

The bill increasing the license to railroads to three per cent. was passed.

A resolution was adopted that when the assembly should adjourn Friday it would adjourn to meet the next Monday evening, the reason assigned being that so many members were getting leave of absence that no business would be done on Saturday, and that it was therefore useless to hold a session on Saturday and Monday.

Wisconsin Twelfth .- This -regiment, commanded by Col. George E. Bryant, ar rived in this city on the morning of the 16th, after a hard trip from the Mississippi We are no sycophont, but must say we never saw a finer looking set of men anywhere. We have witnessed their company drill and dress parade, and have never seen them surpassed, even by regiments of the regular army. They appear to have in their officers all that any regiment could Myers' House, desire, and the officers have in the men that for which they should feel proud.

We wish gentlemen from "Dixie." of whom can eat up seven of these "northern mud sills," would come out and let us see it done.

If Gen. Lane gets a brigade of such regiments, we pity that portion of rebeldom through which duty may lead him.

If this is a specimen of Wisconsin, we wish that we had been reared in that lai-

By the way, the Wisconsin twelfth is an intellectual regiment. We find the various professions well represented among them, and for civility and gentlemanly demeanor we have never seen them excelled. In this respect, their praise is in every part of our city. This one mark leads us to the belief the subject of northern pusillanimity and rankee imbecility. It has been intimated that this regiment will remain here till the first of March. We hope they may .- Weston Mail. What would the "Mail" say if it could see all the Wisconsin regiments together? They are "bully," every one of them.

GOV. CORTIN-PROBABLE IMPEACHMENT. -A special Harrisburg, dispatch to the Philadelphia Inquirer says:

It is believed that the house resolution calling for the investigation of the acts of the last legislature, looks to the impeachment of Gov. Cartin. The committee will undoubtedly be appointed, and they can compel the attendance of witnesses, and imprison in the Dauphin county jail all those who refuse to testify.

The senate passed an investigating resolation, which the house rejected, preferring to act upon its own, no doubt having the fact in mind that, as it must originate all impeachments, it should originate the investigations. It is claimed that witnesses can be aummoned before the committee from any part of the commonwealth. 🗽

JANESVILLE, Jan. 31st, 1862. EDITORS OF GAZETTE: - Captain Ely has done me great injustice in his letter pub lished in your last issue, by stating that I am a deserter. The facts of my case are bill for the relief of farm mortgagors. It these: I was in the battle of Bull Run and provides for the appointment of three comanswer to my questions as to how I was to started to go back to join my company, got they paid for the mortgages. Quartermaster in Chicago, and received to three per cent. was passed. from some person in his office an order on zelf to Capt. Stanton, then a U. S. recruitand asking him to pass me to Washington. In reply I received this dispatch :-" Madison, August 29th, 1861. To John Donovak: - Have enquired of

made. Men pay their own fare.'

I was without money to pay my fare, and could not join my company. I think it very unjust to charge me with being a deserter when I made every effort in my power to return to the service. I have always been and still am ready and willing to go back whenever I can be furnished with a pass to enable me to do so. If any one doubts the truth of these statements. I shall be happy to show them my furlough and the telegraphic dispatches from Gov. Randall, which I have in my possession. JOHN DONOVAN.

[To some of the statements made by Mr. Donovan we can offer personal testimony. In a conversation with him after his return from Chicago, in which he stated his failure to get beyond Chicago, we advised him to report at once to Capt. Stanton, and sawhim leave with one of our citizens for the office of that officer. This fact had escaped our ramembrance, or we would have accompanied the letter of Capt. Ely with the explanation which is due to Mr. Donovan. Mr. D. is a resident of this city, has been here all the time since leaving his company, except the time required for his journey from Washington, and his trip to Chicago and back, and has never attempted a concealment of bis residence. ARRIVAL AT MILWAUKEE. - Capt. Parker's company has arrived in Milwaukee to join Col. Washburn's cavalry regiment. It contains some of our best citizens, and will confee honor upon any cores in the service.

THE PENALTY OF CURIOSITY .-- The Ohio Register says that a minister named Downing, visiting New York on business, had his pocket picked of seventy-nine dollars in a sailor dance house on Water street. He said in excuse for being there, that he had read in a La Crosse paper a description of such places which he did not believe could be true, and was auxious to convince himself. Guess he was nonvinced, and that hereafter he will trust a written description without a personal verification.

On Time .- We learn that on the 29th, Mr. Holdredge, county tressurer of Rock county, paid the whole amount due on state tax to the state treasurer, amounting to $22,829.75. This is the first payment in full by any county, this year.

Horse Thier Caccity.-Yesterday, Under Sheriff Colley of Beloit escorted a young man by the name of Andrews from Woodstook, 1ik, to our county jail. Andrews stole a span of horses in Oshkosh last fall, and was traced to Beloit. About two weeks since, Mr. Colley, with the aid of Deputy Sheriff Church, of McHenry county, Ill., caught the scamp near Woodstock, after quite an exciting chase through the fields. He has now a good safe boarding place, where his friends can find him at all hours.

THE above are Firel Class, justly popular, and prompt paying companies. They invite Investigation into their condition and solicit business entirely upon their real merits. In point of solvency and reliability and honorable dealing, they have but fou equals, and no superiors. They are founded upon the very best securities in the world—first class bonds and mortagess upon property in New York and Brooklyn—securities that have not, for the past ten years, depreciated below par, and are every way more reliable and permanent that railroad, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and hable, in times of ratical, bank, and other stocks, which are subject to the fluctuations of the market, and hable, in times op-panic, as the experience of the past teaches, to become almost, if not entirely, valueless. And while there are Companies entering the field of competition, well calcu-lated to mislead by publishing partial and massided statements of their condition, and without a cash sur-plus on hand sufficient to rehisting their outstanding risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in risks, the above named companies always have and keep over and above their capital twice the amount, and in most instances four times, needed for the reinsurance of all their risks. With such a foundation, and with such a condition, they claim the right to look with confidence to the public for liberal paramage.

Policies issued without delay, and farms risks for a series of years taken at less rates than can be done by M. tual. Companies, and a certainty given instead of an uncertainty. All lesses promptly adjusted and paid.

New York Life Insurance Company, CASH CAPITAL OVER - - $1,900,000 Cast Captal. Over all well invested for the benefit of Policy holders, so that the profits of this vast sum pay a large proportion of their annual premiums. This is unquestionably the very best Life Company doing business in this state.

The want of an authentic and through listory of the Rebuision, to present reference and future preservation, is the subject of general remark. No work of that nature has yet been offered to the public, and all who wish for information are compelled to grope through the mance of the rumors, reports, dispatches, letters and editod lats of the daily newspapers, to precipitate, from its confined columns, the great facts and incidents of the struggle for the Union.

To meet this want, and to produce a work of permanent value as well as of present interest, the publisher has arranged for the issue of the listory as above set forther in a form and at a price which shall render it acceptable to all.

This history will tell the Story as Itts, giving a clear, consecutive narrative of the entire movement, including all the incidents and events in their exact order, and containing the important documents and extracts from remarkable specifies. It will not be a mere disary, nor a mere enumeration of dry and naked dates, nor a compilation of slips from newspapers, but will portary in connected and interesting narrative, the revolutionary steps, as well as the measures of the government.

It will carefully digest all evidence—will sift all rumors and reports—will fix upon facts, and contect so far a possible the errors and discrepancies incident to the hasty narratives of the newspapers.

relations of individuals and communities to the grand events of the time.

It is true, everybody reads the newspapers, but the reports of the newspapers are the fragmentary and contradictory children of the moment, and not a correct, connected and complete history. The above publication, afterwards bound in a handsome volume, will be a book for the family, which will be valued like the record of the War of Independence, or the Life of Washington, and worthy to be kept for children and grand-children, as a memorial of the present time.
